

END TAB FILES

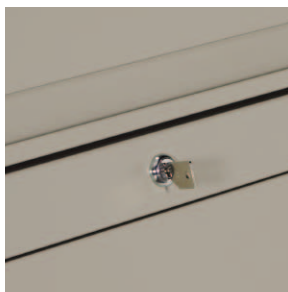

End Tab Filing has taken on a much more important role in today's office. Whether it is a Doctor's, Lawyer's, Accountant's office or business of any kind, document security has become an issue. This is a result of the HIPPA Act and the PIPEDA Act. All personal information now must be under lock & key according to these new government regulations. Global's End Tab Filing provides the security that you demand, in a variety of heights, in our easy to access 9100 Plus Series.
